

International Projects

The CNOS-FAP Federation is responsible for the design of international projects and pilot initiatives aimed at achieving one or more operational objectives in line with its Internationalisation Strategy.

The Project Office of the National Headquarters acts in partnership with European and international institutional bodies and actors, coordinating with CNOS-FAP Regional Associations and Vocational Training Centres especially in the project implementation phase.

URL di origine: <https://cnos-fap.it/node/65950>