

International Projects

The CNOS-FAP Federation oversees the design of international projects and of pilot initiatives aimed at implementing one or more operational objectives in line with its Internationalisation Strategy. The National Head quarter's Project Office acts in partnership with European and international bodies and institutional actors, coordinating with its Regional Associations and VET Centers mainly during the implementation of the project.

---

URL di origine: <https://cnos-fap.it/node/65950>